Clarification of News Report

We write in reply to PSE's letter dated May 18, 2015 seeking clarification and/or confirmation of the news article entitled "ICTSI to bid for Greek port" published in Manila Standard Today (internet edition), May 17, 2015 and reported in part that:

International Container Terminal Services Inc. has expressed interest in a majority stake in Piraeus port in Greece.

Yes. We are now reviewing this opportunity, ICTSI vice president and treasurer Rafael Consing Jr. said in a text message.

ICTSI chairman and president Enrique Razon Jr. said his company participated in an auction (sic) for a port in Cameroon in Africa and would bid for another one in Mombasa, Kenya.

....

ICTSI is keeping a keen eye for profitable investment opportunities. In line with this, we wish to clarify that ICTSI has been reviewing and exploring privatization opportunities in the container port industry globally, including ports in Greece, Africa and Kenya. We shall make a proper disclosure on any of these opportunities as and when appropriate.

We trust that you find the foregoing clarification sufficient and in order.
