The subscription for and the ownership of all shares of stock in this corporation are made and taken upon the condition that any holder of shares of stock desiring to sell or otherwise dispose of the same shall offer his stock to the other stockholders of record.

(a) Stockholders shall have the right of first refusal should any of the stockholders want to sell, in direct proportion to their respective shareholdings in the outstanding capital stock, under the terms and conditions hereunder set forth.

(b) The selling party shall advise the corporate secretary in writing, specifying the price at which said party wants to sell the subject shares and the corporate secretary shall promptly advise the other stockholders (remaining stockholders) in writing of said offer. Interested remaining stockholders shall have 30 days from receipt of notice within which to accept the offer in writing, directed to the corporate secretary. The share pertaining to the remaining stockholders who are not interested in buying any of the subject shares shall be apportioned to those who express their desire to buy more than their respective proportional share in the block of shares being sold.

(c) In the event that the remaining stockholders find the price fixed by the selling stockholder to be reasonable but none of them are interested in buying the shares being sold, the remaining stockholders shall have the right to find a substitute buyer within thirty (30) days from written notice from the corporate secretary that none of the remaining stockholders are interested in the shares being sold. Should more than one of the remaining stockholders exercise said right to find a substitute buyer, the corporate secretary shall so advise them and submit the names of the substitute buyers to the selling stockholder for acceptance.

In the event that a majority of the remaining stockholders based on their holding decide that the price fixed by the selling stockholder as offered by a third party is unreasonable, the price shall be determined by a Board of three arbitrators chosen and with powers provided by the Arbitration Law of the Philippines (R.A 876) whose decision shall be final. Before fixing the price, the Board of Arbitrators shall first determine whether the price fixed by the selling stockholder is reasonable and if so the Board shall confirm the price fixed by the selling stockholder and the arbitration costs shall be borne by the corporation. If, however, the Board of Arbitrators shall determine the price fixed by the selling stockholder to be unreasonable, the Board shall fix the price and costs of arbitration shall be borne by the selling stockholder.

(d) The right of first refusal provision set forth in the preceding paragraphs shall not apply in instances where a stockholder sells or transfers the subject shares to a parent, subsidiary or affiliate company. For the purpose of this paragraph, a company which owns or controls fifty-one percent or more of the capital stock of the selling party shall be considered a parent company; and a company fifty-one percent or more of the capital stock of which is owned or controlled by the selling party shall be considered a subsidiary or affiliate company.

(e) The right of first refusal provision set forth in the preceding paragraphs shall cease to be effective upon approval and implementation of the public listing and registration of the shares of stock of this corporation with the Manila and the Makati Stock Exchanges and with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the public offering of the shares of stock of this corporation.

[Amendment as of April
12 and June 28, 1991]

Sales to third parties made in violation of the right of first refusal shall be void. Third parties shall be those who are not stockholders at the time of the offer, which shall include an offer made directly by a stockholder to any other but not all of the stockholders. The above provisions shall be without prejudice to any pre-incorporation agreement which shall be binding to the signatories thereof. The foregoing restriction shall be indicated in all stock certificates to be issued by the Corporation.

No transfer of share of stock which will reduce the ownership of Filipino citizens to less than the required percentage of capital stock as provided by existing law shall be allowed or permitted to be recorded in the proper books and this restriction shall be printed in all the stock certificates to be issued by the corporation.
