Clarification of News Report

We write in response to your request to clarify the news article entitled “Beyond the port: Ricky Razon’s ICTSI takes full control of Brazil logistics firm” posted in Bilyonaryo (bilyonaryo.com) on July 16, 2026. It was reported in part that:

“Trilyonaryo Enrique “Ricky” Razon Jr.’s International Container Terminal Services Inc. is deepening its presence in Brazil by taking full control of a logistics company serving the Port of Rio de Janeiro.

ICTSI’s Brazilian subsidiary, Rio Logística Multimodal, is buying the remaining 30 percent of iTracker, raising its ownership from 70 percent to 100 percent.

The deal will consolidate ICTSI’s control of a business that operates an empty container depot at the Port of Rio and two multimodal terminals serving the Rio-São Paulo industrial corridor.

“The reorganization reinforces the ICTSI Group’s commitment to the sustainable expansion of its businesses and to developing an increasingly integrated, efficient, and modern regional logistics platform,” Rio Logística Multimodal President Roberto Lopes said.

He said the move would support future investments and help meet the growing needs of Brazil’s foreign trade.

The acquisition complements ICTSI’s existing operations at the Port of Rio, where it secured a container terminal concession in 2019. Full ownership of iTracker gives the Philippine port operator greater control over container storage, inland transport and cargo flows beyond the port gates.

Full ownership of iTracker strengthens ICTSI’s position in Latin America’s largest economy and advances its push to become a broader logistics provider, not just a port operator.

ICTSI confirms its intention to acquire the remaining 30% interest in iTracker Logistica Inteligente ("iTracker").

The Company also wishes to clarify that it does not consider the increase in its ownership interest in an existing subsidiary, which contributes less than 1% to the Company's consolidated financial performance, to be a material transaction. Accordingly, the Company believes that the transaction does not constitute material information requiring disclosure under the applicable disclosure rules.

We trust that the foregoing clarifies the matter.
